

L'ARTICLE DE TOM MCDANIEL

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.

Last night the law was broken. A young Northerner named Adam Cramer delivered an inflammatory speech on the steps of the County Court-house, in which he directly exhorted the citizens of Caxton to become renegades. This speech resulted in an unprovoked attack upon an out-of-county Negro family that happened to be passing through Caxton. It was considered by some to be a minor incident, was not a minor incident.